*Aiden Wilson Tozer was born April 21, 1897 in La Jose, Pennsylvania just outside Mahaffey. In 1919, five years after his conversion and without formal theological training, Tozer began 44 years of ministry with the Christian and Missionary Alliance. For 31 of those years he gained prominence as pastor of the Southside Alliance Church in Chicago. He had weekly radio Bible broadcasts from the Moody Bible Institute also in Chicago. He ministered as pastor, author, editor, Bible conference speaker (even at Mahaffey Camp), and spiritual mentor (even to Billy Graham). Tozer's real strength came from his Bible study and prayer life. He often commented, "As a man prays, so is he." "After the Bible," he said, "the next most valuable book is a good hymnal. Let any Christian spend a year prayerfully meditating on the hymns of Watts and Wesley alone and he or she will become a fine theologian." His most noteworthy books are "The Knowledge of the Holy" and "The Pursuit of God." His writings still reflect "the anointed ability to speak to the present need of men's hearts." Ravenhill said, "To know Dr. Tozer was a great blessing. To pray with him was to be in the Holy Place." Snyder, In Pursuit of God, 1991.*
